ANMC & Australian Legion of Ex-Servicemen and Women Scholarship

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

The ANMC & Australian Legion of Ex-Servicemen and Women Scholarship

The ANMC collaborates with the Australian Legion of Ex-Servicemen and Women (ALS) to sponsor scholarships for nurses undertaking postgraduate study involving care of the older person or palliative care. These Scholarships for one year of study at a recognised Australian university are available to nurses who are either current or ex-service personnel or a family member of a person who has served in the Australian Defence Force at any time. Priority will be given to nurses who are committed to working in a rural or regional area on completion of their study program.

Study Subject: Related to care of older persons or palliative care

Level: Postgraduate – Coursework or Research

Availability

The ALS Scholarships are offered annually to an unspecified number of applicants.

Eligibility

These scholarships are for study in Australia. They are open to nurses who are citizens or permanent residents of Australia; who hold current registration with the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA); and who fulfil the requirement for connection to Australian Defence Force service. Please refer to Eligibility Criteria.

Payment Information

The scholarship will be paid in two instalments (March and August) in the year of study. Academic Progress Report or a certified copy of the university transcript demonstrating satisfactory progress is required in July and December of the scholarship year.

Application Details

Applications for ALS Scholarships must be submitted by the advertised date using the form available at the Australian Nurses Memorial Centre website: <https://australiannursesmemorialcentre.org.au/>
